A top official of Pag-IBIG Fund joined the Philippine Consular Team in Dubai to extend service to Overseas Filipino Workers (OFWs) in the Arab city.

Pag-IBIG Trustee Tomas L. Lopez Jr. joined the outreach activity led by Consul Giovanni Palec and Vice Consul Gerry Soliguin. More than 100 OFWs were assisted by Pag-IBIG Fund and the Philippine consulate at the Wedding Hall of the Ras Al Khaimah on September 13, 2013.

The Pag-IBIG Team promoted the programs to the OFWs and initiated a membership drive there. Lopez spoke with the leaders of the Filipino communities to encourage their members to raise their monthly savings to earn higher dividends and enjoy a bigger loanable amount with Pag-IBIG.

About 50 OFWs signed up as new members to avail themselves of the benefits of the Philippine's premier housing agency and the country's largest source of emergency funds.

The outreach activity is a regular event aimed at helping OFWs who cannot visit the consulate with passport processing, document authentications, and other needs.
