

Pag-IBIG programs presented in Business Seminar in Nigeria

The Philippine Embassy in Nigeria held the third in a series of business seminars dubbed as “Look Better, Develop your Career”, last January, to promote financial literacy and to encourage OFWs to avail of the Philippine government’s Reintegration Program.

Participants of the Business Seminar with OIC Anita P. Dela Cruz, Nadjefah Mangondaya and Mr. John Hernandez during the distribution of Pag-IBIG Kits.

One of the highlights of the one-day seminar was a video presentation on the programs and services of the Pag-IBIG Fund, complemented by the distribution of the Fund’s info materials to the participants. Ms. Nadjehaf Mangondaya, the embassy’s Economic and Information Officer who has been campaigning the Pag-IBIG’s programs in Nigeria since 2011, encouraged the participants to register with the Fund.

The presentation of Pag-IBIG programs was made part of the seminar through the special request of Mr. John Hernandez, President of the Pusong Pinoy Association (PPA) in Nigeria.

Other topics that were discussed in the business seminar included the Philippine government’s loan facilities under the Reintegration Program, tips to achieve financial success, tips to be successful in job interviews and distinguishing oneself from the rest while in employment.
